

Table of Contents

Introduction to the 2014 Edition1
AORN Mission, Vision, and Values2
Section I: Standards of Perioperative Nursing Practice3
Section II: Recommended Practices for Perioperative Nursing43
Introduction to the AORN Recommended Practices43
Recommended Practices for:
Aseptic Practice
Attire, Surgical49
Hand Hygiene61
Preoperative Patient Skin Antiseptis73
Sterile Technique89
Traffic Patterns119
Equipment and Product Safety
Electrosurgery123
Laser Safety141
Minimally Invasive Surgery155
Pneumatic Tourniquet*183
Product Selection209
Surgical Tissue Banking217
Amb Ambulatory Supplement228
Patient and Worker Safety
Environment of Care229
Amb Ambulatory Supplement254
Environmental Cleaning*255
Medication Safety277
Amb Ambulatory Supplement316
Reducing Radiological Exposure321
Amb Ambulatory Supplement331
Retained Surgical Items—Prevention of333
Amb Ambulatory Supplement350
Sharps Safety*351
Specimen Care and Handling375
Amb Ambulatory Supplement382
Transmissible Infections—Prevention of385
Amb Ambulatory Supplement418

* Documents appearing in print for the first time in 2014 and new/revised items published electronically in 2013.

Amb Indicates that an Ambulatory Supplement is available for the preceding topic.

Table of Contents

Patient Care

Deep Vein Thrombosis—Prevention of	421
Hypothermia—Prevention of	431
Information Management	443
Local Anesthesia—Managing the Patient Receiving	465
Moderate Sedation/Analgesia—Managing the Patient Receiving.....	471
Positioning the Patient	481
Transfer of Patient Care Information	501

Sterilization and Disinfection

Anesthesia Equipment—Cleaning, Handling, and Processing	507
Disinfection—High-Level	515
Flexible Endoscopes—Cleaning and Processing	529
Instruments and Powered Equipment—Cleaning and Care	541
Packaging Systems—Selection and Use*	561
Sterilization	575

Section III: Guidance Statements

Health Care Industry Representative—Role of the	603
Perioperative Staffing	605
Safe On-Call Practices	611
Safe Patient Handling and Movement	615

Section IV: Additional Resources

Appendix A: Listing of AORN Position Statements	635
Appendix B: Policy and Procedure Templates for Use with Recommended Practices	637
Appendix C: AACD Glossary of Procedural Times	651
Appendix D: Quality and Performance Improvement Standards	657
Index	667

* Documents appearing in print for the first time in 2014 and new/revised items published electronically in 2013.