E-BLAST Specs

Measurements and File Sizes: E-Blasts can have a max of 700 pixels wide and the download size (inclusive of HTML, content, images, etc.) should be no more than 75kb.

Programming: Standard HTML and inline CSS code only. External files should not be referenced (CSS, JS, etc.). Do not use JavaScript or other scripting languages. To avoid spam filters, maximize the text-to-image ratio; the optimal ratio is 60/40 with around 500 characters (including spaces) of text. We cannot accept e-mails that are over 60% images.

Images: JPEG and GIF image formats only. Animated GIFs are not recommended. Images must be hosted on a non-OutpatientSurgery.net website or may be subject to additional charges. Place images in the E-Blast at 100% without resizing. Do not include rich media (e.g. Flash animations, SWF files, video, etc.).

Tracking and Disclaimers: We include a tracking image to record openings. A small CAN-SPAM Act disclaimer will be included at the bottom of all E-Blasts.

Additional Specifications/Information:

- We recommend a maximum of 50 characters for the subject line.
- Please provide a plain text version of the E-Blast for us to deliver to non-HTML e-mails.
- Please include your physical address in the footer or bottom of the e-mail.
- HTML programming assistance and/or image hosting are available for additional fees.
- Send to: digitalmaterials@outpatientsurgery.net

DID YOU SEE THIS? Ad Specs

We create DYST entries from your print ad materials at no charge. No additional materials are necessary. However, to submit your information for us to use, please follow these guidelines:

Product Images: JPEG or GIF format at 72 dpi sized (in pixels) at 400x400. Ideally, images should be of a product or service with no text. In addition, please also provide a high resolution CMYK image with the dimensions (in pixels): 900x900 at 300 dpi.

Headlines: The maximum character count is 60 characters, including spaces. Headlines should tease a benefit of the service and ideally not include the company or product name.

Descriptions: Text should be 75-100 words. Provide contact phone number and url.
