Perioperative nurses are known for their grit and determination. The last two years have been exceedingly challenging, but challenges also bring opportunities.

Get ahead this year by building your OR skills, expertise, and credentials.

Choose how to best prepare for the CNOR® exam based on your preferred learning style: online at your own pace or together virtually with your OR peers.

Prep for CNOR ONLINE
This self-paced course is a convenient way to fit exam review into your busy schedule and includes:
- Study Guide to help you navigate through the review
- Four months to complete the course
- Exclusive access to current, online Guidelines for Perioperative Practice
- 500 practice questions
- Money-back guarantee
- 54 contact hours
- Test-taking strategies

Virtual Prep for CNOR LIVE
This virtual live program is an effective way to provide exam preparation in a small group setting and includes:
- Live instruction in a virtual setting
- Exclusive access to current, online Guidelines for Perioperative Practice
- Multiple options for dates and times
- Networking with peers
- Two online assessments
- 18 contact hours after completion of the course and course evaluation
- Test-taking strategies

BONUS: AORN’s Prep for CNOR - the only program that offers complimentary access to current online Guidelines for Perioperative Practice, which is the primary reference for the CNOR® exam.
